

Community Relations

Crisis Response

The crisis response team will be empowered and authorized by the school board and administration to act in the best interests of students, staff, and district when an event including the death of a student or staff person occurs which might produce psychological, physical, or emotional problems.

Reviewed: February 12, 2007